REMARKS

Defendant appeared, in custody, with counsel and acknowledged to the Court that his true and correct name is SHAWN ROBSON.

Defendant was advised of his rights and the allegations contained in the Indictment.

“Not guilty” plea entered.

Based on information contained in the Financial Affidavit, the Court appointed counsel from the CJA Panel, Ronald Van Wert, to represent Defendant in this matter. Defendant was advised he may retain private counsel should he choose to do so.

Government is not seeking detention.

U.S. Probation Officer Cassie Lerch remains under oath from a previous hearing and put U.S. Probation Offices recommendation of release on the record.

The Court ordered:

1. Oral order issued confirming the Government’s disclosure obligations under the Due Process Protections Act and the possible consequences of violation of said order (Government has standing objection to language as overbroad).
2. Discovery to be provided according to Local Rules on discovery.
3. Conditions of release imposed upon Defendant which were read to him in Court. Order forthcoming.
